Individual Medley/Backstroke

Aloha, Ore.

Jesuit H.S./Tualatin Hills Thunderbolts

As a Lady Razorback:

As one of the most versatile swimmers on the team, Angela Kora competed in the 100 back, 200 back, 500 free, 1,000 free, 100 breast, 200 breast, 200 and 400 IM events. In the 200 IM, 400 IM and 200 back events, Kora recorded her best times of the season at the Southeastern Conference Championship meet. Kora's best time in the 100 back, 100 breast and 1,000 free occurred at Washington State. Last season, Kora was honored with the 2004-05 Scholar-Athlete award. Kora had nine top five finishes as a sophomore. Kora's best finish of the year was second place at Purdue in the 200 IM. Against Houston, Kora finished in third place in the 1,000 free. Kora swam in nine different events in her first year with the Lady Razorbacks. She started the year strong with a second-place finish in the 1,000 free against Drury. Kora placed fifth in the 1,000 free and sixth in the 100 back in a dual with Georgia. Kora was a three-time member of the SEC Honor Roll.

Prior to Arkansas:

While competing for the Tualatin Hills Thunderbolts, Kora was a senior sectional qualifier and ranked in the top five for the state of Oregon in the 200 back. Competing at the highest levels throughout her prep career, Kora was a multiple event finalist every year she competed at the Oregon state championships. Her club squad finished first at the state championships and was sixth at the senior west sectionals in the summer of 2002. She was a three-year letterwinner and state qualifier, and was the recipient of her club squad's Yellow Jersey Commitment to Excellence award. Kora also served as her high school's valedictorian and won awards in the English, Japanese and computer science departments. She was also active in campus ministry and a member of the National Honor Society. Kora competed in triathlons and was first in her age group and the 11th female overall at the Hagg Lake Triathlon in 2002.

Anne Goodman James

Head Swimming Coach

10th Season

Texas Tech, 1975

Phone: 479-575-7761

Email: agjames@uark.edu

Beginning her tenth season at the University of Arkansas, head coach Anne Goodman James continues to produce high-caliber swimmers. During this time, she has coached seven NCAA All-Americans.

In a career that spans three decades, Goodman James has developed a winning philosophy. She believes that college swimming is a team sport and success is derived from individual attention and team effort.

As a coach, Goodman James feels that it is her responsibility to establish a training program with a balance of different energy systems. She teaches her athletes to not only work hard but also to work smart. Goodman James has built her successful career on helping student-athletes be the very best they can be-in all aspects of their lives.

The College Swimming Coaches Association of America also honored Goodman James with the 2005 Richard E. Steadman award.

In 2004, Goodman James guided the Lady'Backs to its highest team ranking since 1990-91 with a 27th-place finish at the NCAA Championships.

At the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens, Greece, Goodman James watched as Csobanki represented Hungary in the 50 freestyle. Csobanki is the third Olympic athlete Goodman James has coached in her 29-year career.

Academically, the Lady'Backs are one of the nation's finest programs, and in 2002-03 the team was No. 1 in the nation.

Prior to her Arkansas arrival in 1996, Goodman James was the winningest coach in Northern Michigan University history. Goodman James built Northern Michigan into one of the premier women's swim programs in Division II, capturing 28 individual national championships and coaching 85 all-Americans. Her 1992 squad was the NCAA national runner-up, the highest finish for any Wildcat swimming team in NMU history. That same season Goodman James' swimmers won Northern's first-ever Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference championship.

In her ten seasons at NMU, Goodman James coached seven NCAA Division II national record holders and three NCAA Division II Swimmers of the Year. A three-time GLIAC coach of the year (1990, 1991, 1992), Goodman

James coached NMU to several top 10 finishes at the NCAA Division II Championships.

Goodman James was the president of the College Swimming Coaches Association of America from 1993 to 1995 and is a two-time recipient of NCAA Division II's Coach of the Year award, earning it in 1988 and 1991. For seven years, Goodman James was a member of the NCAA Swimming and Diving Committee, and served as the Division II chair from 1987-1994.

Goodman James started her coaching career at her alma mater, Texas Tech. As the Red Raiders' head coach, she had five AIAW national meet qualifiers between 1976 to 1980. In 1980, she was named the head coach of the Division II men and the AIAW Division III women's teams at Cal State-Hayward. Her Hayward women's team finished eighth at the 1981 AIAW Championships while her men's team was 10th at the NCAA Division II championships. After

Scott Reich

Head Diving Coach
Fourth Season
SMU, 1979
Phone: 479-575-6796
Email: sreich@uark.edu

Fourth-year diving coach Scott Reich has made quite an impact on the Lady Razorback record books. Last season's freshmen-laden squad produced the 2005 Southeastern Conference Freshman Diver of the Year in Brienne Kushner.

At the 2004 NCAA Championships, Reich guided Mandy Moran to a runner-up finish on the three-meter springboard. In addition to a national runner-up finish, Moran also finished 13th in the platform and 14th in the one-meter to earn all-American honors in three events. With 24 points, Moran guided the Lady'Backs to 27th place, the team's best finish since 1990-91.

In 2002-03, Reich sent Moran to the NCAA Zone Diving Championships. Moran finished 12th on the platform and 18th on the three-meter board at the NCAA Championships. Moran's finish led to her first all-American honor.

Coaching Highlights

- 2002 SEC Diving Coach of the Year
- 2001 SEC Diving Coach of the Year
- 2000 NCAA Diving Coach of the Year
- 2000 SEC Diving Coach of the Year
- 1988 NIC Diving Coach of the Year
- 1987 U.S. Age Group Coach of the Year
- 1987 NIC Diving Coach of the Year
- 1986 NIC Diving Coach of the Year
- 1983 SEC Diving Coach of the Year

Reich Has Coached

- 12 Olympians
- 61 All-Americans
- 3 Division I National Champions
- 1 Division I Diver of the Year

International Coaching Experience

- 1992 U.S. Olympic Team
- 1988 U.S. Olympic Team
- National Team Coach for 11 countries

Moran also broke the 20-year-old three-meter diving dual record, held by Lisa Trombley, with a score of 343.28.

Prior to Arkansas, Reich was the head men's and women's diving coach at Louisiana State. Reich's keen eye and ability to develop talent allowed LSU to dominate women's diving at both the conference and national level. During that time his athletes scored more points at the NCAA diving championships than any other program in the SEC, and in 2001, he coached six divers who qualified for the NCAA meet with five earning all-America honors.

Two of his protégés,

Jamie Watkins and Ashley Culpepper, won NCAA titles during the 2000 season in the one meter and three meter, respectively. Culpepper was honored as the NCAA Diver of the Year, while Reich received NCAA Coach of the Year honors.

The SEC coaches noticed Reich's accomplishments and voted him SEC Coach of the Year, for three consecutive years. Reich's athletes earned three consecutive SEC Diver of the Year awards. In 2002, Reich guided the LSU platform divers to a sweep of the top three spots at the conference championships.

Since his coaching career began 18 years ago, Reich has coached 12 Olympians and more than 20 NCAA all-Americans. In 1988, Reich coached the bronze medalist at the Seoul Olympics, Wendy Williams, and he trained Culpepper, who was the U.S. Diving team's alternate at the 2000 Sydney games.

Reich began his coaching career at his alma mater, Southern Methodist University, in 1981 and was the Mustang's skipper until the fall of 1982 when he moved to Auburn University. In 1984, Reich left Auburn for the University of Miami (Fla.) and stayed there until 1989. After a short stint away from competitive coaching, Reich returned to the pool in 1994 as LSU's diving coach.

During his career, Reich has been named the SEC Diving Coach of the Year four times, the National Independence Conference Coach of the Year three times and the NCAA Diving Coach of the Year in 2000.

Not only successful as a collegiate coach, Reich was one of four coaches for the 1988 and 1992 Olympic diving teams and served as international coach for Argentina, Australia, Belgium, Bolivia, Brazil, Canada, Japan, Holland, Puerto Rico and Venezuela. In 1987, he was named the U.S. National Age Group Coach of the Year.

Prior to becoming one of the nation's premier diving coaches, Reich was a standout diver in his own right. He was a U.S. Senior National Team member from 1975-80 and won the senior national championship in 1977 in the one-meter springboard. A five-time national age group champion and two-time world age group winner, Reich was also a four-time all-American for SMU and took a silver and two bronze medals at the NCAA Championships in both the one- and three-meter competitions.

Reich earned a bachelor's degree at SMU. He and his wife, Jennifer, have three children, James, 13, Nikki, 11, and Jacob, 5.

Benji DeMotte

Assistant Swimming Coach
Third Season
Syracuse, 1994
Phone: 479-575-3391
Email: benji@uark.edu

Benji DeMotte begins his third year as the Lady Razorbacks' assistant coach. DeMotte is the recruitment and internet coordinator for the Lady'Backs.

Previously the head coach at Binghamton University in Binghamton, N.Y., DeMotte guided both the men's and women's teams through their transition from Division III to Division I. Along the way, DeMotte collected eight conference championships during his six seasons.

In 2002-03, DeMotte had two qualifiers in three events at the NCAA women's nationals, and produced an all-American in Binghamton's first season in Division I. Voted coach of the year by his peers six times, DeMotte's teams produced the league swimmer of the year six times, including four female swimmers of the year.

Coaching Highlights

6-time coach of the year
92 school records

11 conference records

DeMotte Has Coached

2 Olympians

7 all-Americans

6 swimmers of the year

His achievements include coaching the 2002 Female Swimmer of the Year in the America East Conference and a sweep of the 2003 America East men's trophies - Coach of the Year, Athlete of the Year and conference champions.

Among his notable recruits to Binghamton were two Olympians and seven Olympic Trials athletes - the only international caliber athletes at BU. Along with the university's first Division I all-American, DeMotte coached seven all-Americans across the three divisions that broke 92 school records and 11 conference records.

A 1994 graduate of Syracuse, DeMotte received his master's in business administration at Binghamton. DeMotte and his wife, Laura, have a one-year-old son, Sam.

Zsuzsa Csobanki

Student Assistant Coach

After a successful career as a Lady Razorback, Zsuzsa Csobanki is working as a student assistant coach. She completed her collegiate eligibility in 2005.

In 2004, Csobanki represented Hungary in the 50 freestyle at the Olympics in Athens, Greece. She was a four-time Hungarian National Champion. While at Arkansas, Csobanki was a two-time all-American.

Csobanki is the daughter of Peter Csobanki and Agnes Szego. She has a sister, Judit. Currently, Csobanki is finishing her degree in interior design.

Tim Lavoie

Strength and Conditioning Assistant

Tim Lavoie joined the Lady Razorbacks as a strength and condition assistant in August 2004 and he assist with the swimming and diving team. Lavoie earned a bachelor's degree in history from Colgate University in 2003.

As a fullback, Lavoie recorded 15 touchdowns and more than 1,000 yards rushing and 200 yards receiving in his Raider career. Lavoie was a three-time Eastern College Athletic Conference Rookie of the Week.

Lavoie is the son of Randy and Mary Lavoie. He has an older brother, Randy, and younger sister, Caroline.

Mandy Moran

Volunteer Diving Coach

A four-time all-American diver for the Lady Razorbacks, Mandy Moran continues with the Arkansas tradition as a volunteer diving coach.

Moran finished her collegiate career as the 2004 NCAA Runner-up in the three-meter and was an all-American in three events. As a junior, Moran broke the three-meter diving dual record, held since 1983 by Lisa Trombley, placing first with a score of 343.28 against Kansas. On the platform she placed 12th, earning all-American honors in 2003. Moran was a three-time Arkansas Division I Diver of the Year.

Moran is the daughter of Ray and Peggy Moran. She has one sister, Sara-Kim. While competing for Arkansas, Moran earned her degree in marketing in 2004. Representing Canada, Moran placed seventh in the three-meter synchronized diving event at the 2005 World Championships. Moran is also the diving coach for the Springdale and Fayetteville diving teams.

Emily Willoughby

Athletic Trainer

Beginning her second year as an athletic trainer with the Lady Razorbacks, Emily Willoughby, A.T. C., L., assists the swimming and diving team. A 2004 graduate of the University of New England, Willoughby earned her bachelor's degree in athletic training.

While attending the University of New England, Willoughby was a standout softball player for the Nor'easters. A four-year starter in the outfield, she was a two-year captain and earned the Commonwealth Coast Conference softball scholar-athlete of the year as a senior.

Willoughby is the daughter of Dean and Ann Willoughby, and she is currently seeking her master's degree in kinesiology.

Season Outlook

The youth movement continues in the Arkansas swimming and diving program. Underclassmen dominate the Lady Razorback roster. Angela Kora is the lone senior with juniors Mariann Fulop and Kristen Thibodeaux leading the way for the Lady'Backs. The seven newcomers will try to replace the five seniors, including two all-Americans, from last season's squad.

Butterfly

Head coach Anne Goodman James said she expects the butterfly events to lead the Lady'Backs this season. School record-holder sophomore Emily Gregory should lead the squad when she returns from shoulder surgery.

"I feel like we are pretty solid in fly," Goodman James said. "That's an area that I would consider strength for us."

Freshmen Summer Jackson and Emily Fletcher are expected to join sophomore Juliette Burks and junior Kristen Thibodeaux in the lineup.

"Emily Fletcher will be a major contributor especially in the 100 fly," Goodman James said.

Jesika Heidloff

Angela Kora

Breaststroke

Goodman James said she is looking forward to the newcomers impact in the breaststroke events.

"Those events are going to be the biggest turnaround in our program," she said. "With (freshmen) Jesika Heidloff and Elizabeth Engs coming in, both having times that could score at the SEC Championships, just the addition of them is huge for our program."

With the addition of Engs and Heidloff, Goodman James said the medley-relays times should improve dramatically.

"That's an area that I'm probably most excited about," she said. "It's one where there's been a little bit of a drought the last couple of years, and one that we can confidently look forward to a lot more success in."

Backstroke

Junior Mariann Fulop is expected to direct the Lady'Backs in the backstroke events, while freshman Dashya Kimmel should also contribute, according to Goodman James.

"We expect to use (sophomore) Tifanie Silver there as well," Goodman James said. "That's not a spot we used her in last year, but we see some promise for her in those events especially in the 100 back."

Sprint Freestyle

Despite the loss of all-American and Olympian Zsuzsa Csobanki, Goodman James said she expects good results from the sprint freestyle events. Thibodeaux is back in the mix after redshirting the 2004-05 season.

“Summer Jackson is someone that I think we can depend on there to lead that contingency,” she said. “Tifanie Silver will continue to contribute there.”

Kristen Thibodeaux

Distance Freestyle

New faces will grace the distance freestyle lineup for the first time in four years after the departure of all-American Whitney Lynn. “(Freshman) Macey Webb is going to really lead that group,” Goodman James said. “It’s a small group of people. She is certainly going to be the anchor.”

Individual Medley

Goodman James said Kora is going to anchor the individual medley ensemble with Fulop, Fletcher and freshman Lonnie Strange also contributing to the Arkansas effort.

Diving

Sophomore Brienne Kushner should lead the young Lady’Back diving squad after she earned Southeastern Conference Freshman Diver of the Year honors last season.

“I think we’ll see a little more strength for us there,” Goodman James said. “It’s an area with lots of depth. We’re excited to have Kellyn Williams and Madison Palmer, who both redshirted last year, on the competitive squad.”

Schedule

The Lady’Backs face another tough schedule for the 2005-06 season. Arkansas meets several nationally ranked teams including defending national champion Georgia, who will host the Southeastern Conference Championship meet.

“The schedule is a real challenging one,” Goodman James said. “We’ve got Auburn and Florida on the schedule, who are No. 2 and No. 4 in the country. Those will be challenging meets that we’ll really have to step up to.”

Arkansas opens the season at home against Nebraska Oct. 15. The meet marks the first match-up for the programs since the 1991-92 season. The Lady’Backs travel to Drury and Houston before entering the Rice Invitational and Indiana Invitational. Arkansas concludes the fall semester with its first SEC meet of the season, as the Lady’Backs host Kentucky Dec. 3.

The Lady’Backs’ final home meet of the season is Jan. 14 against Tulane. The squad then travels to Florida for a three-way conference meet with Alabama. Arkansas wraps up the regular season with a meet at Auburn along with Florida State.

Arkansas takes on conference foes at the SEC Championship meet, Feb. 15-18, in Athens, Ga., before the NCAA Championship, March 16-18.

Season Review

The 2004-05 season for the Lady'Backs was a memorable one with postseason honors and national qualifiers leaving their mark in the record book.

Head coach Anne Goodman James said last season was a rollercoaster with Arkansas handling the ups and downs of the year.

"It was a tough year," she said. "We were riddled with injuries that occurred both in and out of the pool. It certainly affected the depth of our team, but there were definitely some highlights as well, the things that we looked back on and were most excited about were Whitney Lynn and Zsuzsa Csobanki qualifying for the NCAA Championships."

Brieanne Kushner earned Southeastern Conference Freshman Diver of the Year honors after a successful freshman season.

Goodman James was also honored in 2005 as she was presented the College Swimming Coaches Association of America Richard E. Steadman award.

For only the third time in the last 10 years, the Lady'Backs began the season with a dual-meet victory. Arkansas defeated Drury University 136-103, Oct. 22, 2004, in the season opener in Fayetteville. Csobanki led the Lady'Backs as she won three events. She won the 50 and 100 free and was the anchor for the 400-medley relay.

With her winning performance in the 1,000 free, Lynn swam the fourth fastest time in school history. She owns four of the top five times in the Lady'Back record books.

Fulop contributed as she won two events, the 200 IM and 200 back. This marked her first collegiate victory in a backstroke event.

The diving squad swept the events as Wilson and Kushner won the one- and three-meter springboards, respectively.

In the first SEC meet of the season at Louisiana State, Arkansas fell to conference foes LSU, 73-60, and Alabama, 74-59.

Lynn paced the Lady'Backs as she won the distance freestyle events. Lynn's time in the 1,000 free was good enough for the fifth best time in Arkansas history. She has the top five best times in the school record books.

"Certainly, the star of the day was Whitney Lynn," Goodman James said. "She was in total command of both races from the very beginning. It's going to be very exciting to see what happens with her the rest of the season."

In the deep end, Kushner took second place in both the one- and three-meter events.

Gregory recorded a second-place finish in the 100 fly and took fourth place in the 200 fly.

The Lady'Backs continued their Louisiana road trip to the Big Easy for a meet with Tulane and New Orleans, Oct. 30, 2004. Arkansas recorded a split as the Lady'Backs dominated UNO 126-7 but were edged by Tulane 74-67.

Csobanki, Fulop and Lynn paced the squad with two wins each. Fulop was in command winning the 100 back and 400 IM.

"Mariann Fulop had a strong performance in the 400 IM," Goodman James said. "She took control from the very beginning and never let up."

On the boards, Wilson won the one-meter event, while Kushner took honors on the three-meter springboard.

After tackling the Bayou, the Lady'Backs trekked to the Pacific Northwest for a meet with Washington State, Nov. 6, 2004. Despite Arkansas winning over half of the events, the Lady'Backs fell to the Cougars 119-86.

In the loss, Arkansas recorded its first freestyle-relay win of the season. Freshman Katie Borkovec, Csobanki, Fulop and freshman Tifanie Silver combined for the victory in the 200-free relay.

Along with a pair of victories in the distance freestyle events, Lynn set a Washington State Gibb Pool record in the 1,000 free.

Since Washington State does not sponsor a diving team, the Lady'Backs were at a disadvantage without a portion of the squad.

The Aggie Invitational, Nov. 20-22, 2004, was successful for the Lady'Backs despite finishing fourth. Csobanki made a NCAA 'B' cut in the 50 free, while Lynn qualified in the 500 and 1,650 free.

In the first meet of 2005, the Lady'Backs enjoyed the Hawaii sun but lost to Pacific, 66-37, and Houston, 60-44, Jan. 3, 2005, in Honolulu, Hawaii.

In typical fashion, Csobanki and Lynn continued to lead the team as they both won two events. Csobanki took the sprint races, 50 and 100 free, while Lynn paced the 500 and 1,000 free fields.

Returning to the conference schedule wasn't pleasant for the Lady'Backs when Tennessee defeated Arkansas 121-111, Jan. 10, 2005, in Fayetteville.

Kushner was a highlight for the Lady'Backs when she was victorious in both the one- and three-meter springboard events.

Following her performance against Tennessee, Kushner earned SEC Diver of the Week honors.

The Lady'Backs concluded the conference regular season with a split in Kentucky as Arkansas defeated Louisville, 89-51, but lost to Kentucky 84-54, in Lexington, Jan. 22, 2005.

"Against Kentucky, we were fired up by our one and two finish in the 200 fly by Mariann and Emily, and with wins by Zsuzsa in both the 100 and 50 freestyles, and Whitney in the 500 free," Goodman James said.

On senior day, Arkansas bid farewell to five seniors, A.K. Campbell, Hannah Clegg, Lisa Petry, Csobanki and Lynn. The Lady'Backs fell to Kansas 163-133, Jan. 29, 2005.

Lynn and Gregory both won two events for the Lady'Back crew with Jamie Hyslop and Kushner winning the one- and three-meter events, respectively.

"She (Lynn) just took control of the 1,000 free and really dominated in the second half of the 500 free," Goodman James said. "This was just a typical display of what she has been doing for us in every meet for the last four years."

At the SEC Diving Championships in Gainesville, Fla., Feb. 11-13, 2005, Kushner led the Lady'Backs scoring in all three events. She finished 10th on the three meter, 13th on the one meter and 16th on the platform. Wilson recorded Arkansas' best finish on the platform taking 11th -place honors.

The SEC Swimming Championships, Feb. 16-19, 2005, were historic for the Lady'Backs when Gregory broke school records in the 100 and 200 fly. She also made a NCAA 'B' cut in the 100 fly.

Csobanki and Lynn also scored for Arkansas in the 50 and 500 free, respectively. The 200-medley relay team that consisted of Clegg, Muck, Gregory and Csobanki finished sixth while setting a season-best time.

The Lady'Backs finished the conference meet in ninth place with 147 points.

Arkansas sent Kushner, Wilson and Hyslop to the NCAA Zone 'D' Diving Championships in College Station, Texas, March 11-13, 2005, but the trio failed to qualify for the NCAA Championships.

Csobanki and Lynn concluded their Lady'Backs careers with a trip to the NCAA Championships, March 17-20, 2005, in West Lafayette, Ind. In the 1,650 free, Lynn finished 30th and she also tied for 48th in the 500 free. Csobanki finished 54th in the 50 free.

In spite of the loss of five seniors, including two all-Americans, Goodman James said the Lady'Backs have a bright future ahead.

"It was a year with lots of challenges, but I think the team came through well," she said. "They're excited about having everybody healthy for next year, the new people coming in, and a fresh start."

Maintaining a Tradition of Excellence

The Lady Razorbacks have enjoyed a rich tradition of academics through the years. The swimming and diving team maintains one of the highest grade point averages in the University of Arkansas Women's Athletics Department, as well as among the top Division I swimming and diving programs in the country.

In 2003-04, the Lady'Backs were fifth in the nation in grade point average, 3.47, according to the College Swimming Coaches Association of America. In 2002-03, CSCAA named Arkansas the top academic team in Division I. The Lady'Backs were No. 2 in the spring 2003 with a 3.51 GPA. In fall 2002, the team was No. 1 in America with a 3.644 GPA. Combining those gave the Lady'Backs the honor of No. 1 in the classroom.

For more than four years, the CSCAA has named the Lady'Backs a top ten Division I Academic All-America Team. In the spring of 2002, the Lady Razorbacks earned a 3.43 cumulative GPA, which was good for fifth in the nation. They finished second in the fall of 2001 with a 3.52 GPA, and prior to last season, had finishes of sixth, eighth and fourth dating back to the spring of 2000.

Six Lady'Backs were named to the 2004-05 Southeastern Conference swimming and diving academic honor roll. This award requires a 3.0 GPA for either the past year or a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher for their career, a sophomore or higher in academic classification and 24 semester hours toward a degree.

In 2005, Emily Gregory received CSCAA Academic All-American honorable mention.

Proud of its academic standing, the Lady Razorbacks have issued an award for the top scholar-athlete, and Angela Kora was awarded the 2005 scholar-athlete honor.

Lady'Back History

The Arkansas women's swimming and diving program has enjoyed a rich tradition of record-setters, conference champions and numerous all-Americans throughout its three-decade history. It also has one notable first.

When Diane Doucet, a highly touted diver from New Orleans, La., put together an incredible performance on the one-meter springboard at the AIAW National Championships in 1979, she became the first swimming and diving all-American, male or female, at the University of Arkansas. Twenty-seven women have followed Doucet to all-American status over the following decades and have helped to build a storied aquatic legacy at the University of Arkansas.

Other notable divers include national champions and all-Americans Karen Gorham and Robin Ford. Gorham captured the one-meter title at the 1981 AIAW Championship and was named the AIAW Diver of the Year. A seven-time all-American, Gorham also won the U.S. Diving title in 1980. Gorham's success helped attract other divers like Ford, a two-time all-American and the 1983 NCAA one-meter champion.

Following in Gorham and Ford's footsteps were highly touted divers like Diane Dudeck, Becky Martin, Karen Straley and Alicia Turner, but following the 1996 season, Arkansas hit a lull until Katerina Kordiukova put the Lady Razorbacks back on the map. Kordiukova scored 478.85 points on the three-meter board to take a ninth-place finish at the 2001 NCAA Championships. Kordiukova just missed the championship finals by .05 points. She also scored points for Arkansas in the one-meter competition with a 17th place finish at the National Championships.

Cheryl McArton

In 2003, Mandy Moran was the three-meter NCAA National Runner-up. Moran also set the three-meter dual school record in 2003.

Several other Lady'Backs have earned multiple all-American honors in the pool. New Yorker Kris Sheedy and Dallas native Missy Allert picked up seven all-America certificates while Arkadelphia's Nancy Duncan had five. Sheedy and Duncan swam on the powerful relay teams of the late 1980s, while Allert was a powerful freestyle specialist.

Canadian Cheryl McArton became the first Lady'Back to reach the Olympics when she swam on Canada's 400-freestyle relay at the 1984 games in Los Angeles. She held six Arkansas records when she finished her career, and held the school record holder in the 500 free until current Lady'Back Whitney Lynn broke the record in 2003.

Natalia Kodajova wrote a new chapter in Lady'Back history when she came to Arkansas from Zilina, Slovakia, in 1998. Kodajova, one of Slovakia's best swimmers, competed at the 1996 Olympic Games in Atlanta in the 100 and 200 breaststroke and used her vast international experience to put together a fabulous career at Arkansas. Kodajova won many races for Arkansas during her career and earned the state's outstanding swimmer award two times. In 2001, Kodajova represented Slovakia in the World University Games, for the second time, in Beijing, China. She also competed in 1999, where she finished 11th in the 100 breaststroke.

Lady'Back Zsuzsa Csobanki represented Hungary in the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens, Greece, and is a four-time Hungarian National Champion in the 50 free.

With head coach Anne Goodman James at the helm, Arkansas swimming and diving has turned the corner and has become a team to watch.
